If you are the black sheep, you don't need to get your family to accept you. And that can give you so much freedom to make your own choices in life, without having to please anyone. You don't have to compromise your values and beliefs, and you can stay true to yourself. No one is controlling you anymore.

The Power Of Being The Black Sheep In The Family

The black sheep of the family is the outcast, seen as different, written off. At best, they're playfully teased; at worst, they're rejected. The more they're ridiculed, the less likely they are to open up and share things about
